CLARK DONATES
SURFING CUPSHume Ford Stirring Up Interest in Outrigger Club in the East.The following letter from George Osborne shows that our energetic Hume Ford is keeping busy:Editor Advertiser:—I have some good news for the Outrigger Canoe Club, which ought to make the boys of the club take a renewed interest in the club and in the surf board and surf canoe racing. The following quotation from a letter received by Messrs. E. O.
Hall & Son will speak for itself."I have just received a very pleasant call from Mr. Alexander Hume Ford, president of the Outrigger Canoe Club, who tells me he is arranging a surf board contest and outrigger canoe races at Waikiki in honor of my 700 passengers of each cruise of the Arabic, to take place in the afternoon of the first day of the arrival of each cruise, namely, January 23 and February 12, 1910."I want to donate two silver cups for each cruise, making four cups in all, to be engraved: 'Donation from F. C.
Clark to the Canoe Club' and ditto to the Surf Board Club, 'S. S. Arabic, Cruise 1910.'"Mr. Clark would like a picture of a man standing on a surf board and one of a man in a canoe to be engraved on these silver cups.The designs for same will be selected at the next meeting of the officers of the Outrigger Canoe Club.These cups are to be twelve inches high, with two handles each, mounted on an ebony base, and will form a beautiful present.A draft has been forwarded to the above-mentioned firm, so there is no mistake about the event coming off.
These cups, unlike most others, will only have to be won once.Very truly, GEO. OSBORNE.WAIALUA WINS FROM AIEASAn exciting ball game was played at Waialua last Sunday between the Wai-alua and Aieas, ending in favor of the former by the score of 6 to 3.The Aieas put up a good game and on several occasions it seemed as though they would walk over their opponents, but Deponte's steady game held them down.Deponte was in town for some time and got some good points at Aala park.
He pitched a pretty game with seventeen strikeouts to his credit and allowing only two hits.Kupau made a good hit sending the ball over the fence, but died at third.
Figueira did wonders behind the bat, and he will keep the Ewa boys guessing some next Sunday when he signs down to Deponte.Score by innings: Aieas . . . . . 0 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0—3

PLAY CRICKETThe Pollards have finally managed to arrange a cricket match, which will be played next Sunday with the Honolulu C. C. at Makiki field. The game will start at 2:30 and will be of the one-inning variety.The young actors think that they have a good chance to beat the local experts as they have all been brought up to the game and some of them represented their schools in Australia, where school cricket is not to be sneezed at.Goulding and Ernest Chester will do most of the bowling. The latter is really clever at this part of the game but is not much used to a mat pitch.
When at school, he bowled in the big match of the season and took five wickets for six balls including the hat trick in his performance."That organist Belle jilted for the aged millionaire played a spiteful trick at her wedding." "What did he do?"
"Instead of playing them up the aisle with the wedding march, he struck up Old Hundred."—Boston Transcript.JACKSON WANTS TO RACE SAITONigel Jackson expects to go to Hilo next Friday to look over the possibilities of a Marathon race there on July 4, the day before the horse-racing events take place.He is anxious to get in communication with Mr. Saito, the Japanese long-distance runner and writes the following letter:"Sporting Editor Advertiser: I see by yesterday morning's Advertiser that Mr. Saito, the champion long distance runner of Tokio and an all-round sportsman, is open to race anyone on the Islands in a Marathon race."I, being the champion of the Hawaiian Islands, think it my duty to respond and offer to defend my title.
If Mr. Saito wishes to race we can accommodate each other without any formal challenging."Respectfully yours, "NIGEL JACKSON."The first hospital company of the N.
G. H. will give a concert and dance on the evening of Saturday, May 1.
The Hawaiian band will play the grand march and the Hawaiian band glee club will furnish music for the dancing.
E. S. Barry is in charge of the arrangements, which assures a successful entertainment.

AMUSEMENTS

Pollard Vaudeville Tonight.

There was quite a good house at the last performance of "Checkers" at the Opera House last night, and the clever lines in the play and the songs and dances were all well appreciated and loudly applauded.Tonight there will be more vaudeville. There will be several changes from the show which pleased the audience so well on Monday night. Willie Pollard will sing "The Old Home in the Same Place." Eva Moore, Jack and Eva Pollard and Teddie McNamara will also have changes in their stunts, and they are even cleverer than their predecessors.Goulding will give another imitation of Harry Lauder, and this time will sing two other songs made famous by the Scotch comedian. Goulding is simply splendid in this part, and his accent seems to be just as good as the original, while his make-up is perfect in every detail.The performance will be repeated on Saturday afternoon, and on Saturday evening the Pollards will put on a new vehicle for their clever musical and dancing specialties in a comic opera called "Fun on the Bristol."There was a dress rehearsal of this piece yesterday morning, and it is safe to say that it is far and away the funniest thing the Pollards have yet attempted. Alfred Goulding will play the part of a woman, "Widow O'Brien," and he is execrably funny. A born comedian, with a natural aptitude for making up, Goulding was never seen to better advantage than in this part.

They Laugh at the Orpheum.

Comedy reigned supreme at the Orpheum last night when the Elleford company presented the three-act farce comedy, "The Other Fellow," or "Dr.
Bill." The complications arise with the curtain and follow each other in such rapid succession that the inter-missions are needed for breathing spells. The play offers especially fine opportunities for every member of this excellent organization. The possibilities for securing laughs are unlimited and every one in the company seemed to be trying to keep the torrent of mirth moving and they certainly succeeded.
"The Other Fellow" is a clean breezy story and unlike most farce comedies it has a well defined plot. The true comedian is the man who can make you laugh at his misfortunes and the more trouble he succeeds in getting into the better we are pleased, and the mixups in this comedy would provide laughs for several nights if necessary, instead of getting them all in one dose and getting that pain in your side in consequence. If you are feeling blue and want to liven up go and see "The Other Fellow" at the Orpheum tonight, and if you don't feel better, then you are about past cure.As usual the Osborn children had something new to offer and they pleased in the same delightful way. There is one more performance tonight of the pleasing farce and it gives way tomorrow and Saturday night to a scenic presentation of the comedy melodrama, "Kidnaped." The Saturday matinee bill is "The Two Orphans," a play that will delight all of the school children as well as their elders. Most of the little folks have read the story and can now see a fine presentation of the play. The matinee prices are 25 cents for children to any part of the house and 50 cents for adults. Seats are now on sale for all performances of the week.UNION
